Centennial

The staff of the Jasper-Yellowhead Museum & Archives likes to think we know a thing or two about Jasper's history. We have a multitude of artefacts, photographs and documents from Jasper's earliest days. From buckskin jackets to crank telephones, you can find it in our basement. What we don't have are artefacts, photographs and documents from Jasper's recent past. We know they are out there but we don't have them!

It could be that residents don't think these items have any value or it could be that they value them immensely and aren't yet ready to donate them. Please keep us in mind when you are thinking of throwing out old home movies, photo albums or even a frame pack used to back pack over the Skyline Trail in the 70's.

The other missing piece in Jasper's history is stories from our not so distant past. We are lucky enough to have a wonderful resource in the many books written about Jasper but we would like to tap into some more recent memories. Were you a resident of Jasper's Free Camp? Did you hang out at the Happy Place or the original L & W? Did you take part in a memorable school field trip, like the trips to Athabasca Pass? Were you an extra in one of the films or TV shows filmed in Jasper? Do you have a story to tell about skiing, curling or playing hockey? Do you have a great memory of a Can-U -Canoe Race, an October Fest, a Folk Festival, or the Jasper-Banff Relay? Where were you in the storm of '89?

We would like to feature some of these stories in our Jasper National Park Centennial exhibit to open in June 2007. If you have a story to share, please send it our way via e-mail at manager@jaspermuseum.org, mail at Box 42, Jasper, T0E 1E0 or drop it by the museum.
